

SGB-II-Consultation

Psychosocial counseling service

We are

SGBII – Consultation is offered to people:

- that receives ALGII from the Jobcenter Oberhausen
- are in difficult situation

SGBII-Consultation

Is a psychosocial counseling service that offers professional support to people with problems, crisis and other difficult situations.

It is about:

- accompanying, supporting and consulting in questions about professions and lifestyle
- arrange Life goals
- keeping good health and satisfaction
- overcoming crisis and problems

Other options

In addition to the SGBII consulting, our psychological health center also provides:

- Contact and counseling center for people with mental diseases

consulting, discussions, open meetings, routine and Teamwork

- Assisted living for people with addiction or mental illness

- Gleis 51 – Caritas am Bahnhof

low-threshold meeting point that opens all week with affordable food and drinks.

Networking

As a part of our counseling we work very closely with many different specialized institutions, including:

- Integration Service
- Competence Center Addiction
- family (home) doctors
- clinics
- debt counseling and Insolvency advice
- homeless help
- women counseling
- probation help
- youth help
- ... and many more

Please, if you are in any of these situations or have any question about it, don't hesitate to contact us.